15
16 COMES NOW Brian C. McDonald, by and through his attorney,
17 DENNIS A CAMERON, Esq., and request this Court provide an Order
18 for temporary release for Brian McDonald to obtain eye surgery
19 which is currently scheduled for July 11, 2016.

20 On June 13, 2016, Brian McDonald appeared before this 21 Court and was sentenced to sixty months in prison. Brian 22 McDonald's family appeared at the sentencing and requested the 23 Court to consider allowing Mr. McDonald to self-surrender so he 24 could obtain eye surgery at his family's expense. The 25 government opposed the self-surrender but not the temporary 26

1 release for surgery. The Court indicated that when the surgery
2 was set a Motion could be filed and the Court would consider a
3 third-party release to Mr. McDonald's father because the family
4 was willing to pay for the surgery. Mr. McDonald's father, 5 Craig McDonald, agreed that he would be responsible for 6 transporting Brian McDonald to Denver, Colorado, for the 7 surgery and the returning him to the Washoe County Jail
8 subsequent to the surgery. Craig McDonald resides at 1060
9 South Elizabeth Street, Denver, Colorado 80209, phone number 10 (775) 934-8730. Craig McDonald has provided a copy of the 11 appointment.
12

13 In preparation for this motion, Counsel spoke to Assistant 14 United States Attorney Carla Higginbotham who advised she had 15 no objection to the temporary release for the surgery.
16

17 Counsel also spoke with pre-trial services Jennifer 18 Simone, who indicated that if the court granted the release and 19 wanted pre-trial supervision they would do so but they did not 20 object to the third-party custody by the father.

21 Based on the above, it is requested that Brian McDonald, 22 be released on his own recognizance into the custody of his 23 father, Craig McDonald for a period of ten (10) days beginning
24 July 9, 2016 for purposes of surgery.

1 The family will be responsible for all costs of transportation
2 to Denver, Colorado and the return to the custody of the Washoe
3 County Jail on July 19, 2016.
